

THE MEXICO LEDGER
A Newspaper of the Present Time,
Intended for the People now on Earth.
THURSDAY, SEPT. 8, 1881.
50 Cents
PAYS FOR THE LEDGER
To January 1, 1882.

Paris Fair this week.
John Atkins has gone to New Mexico.
The bicycle craze has struck Mexico.
I. Frank is in Chicago buying goods.
We want ten cords of dry hickory wood.
There is another divorce case in prospect.
Forepaugh's show was crowded day and night.
Orphans Harding has gone to Kentucky to school.
The prospects for Hardin College are very flattering.
Our fair was a decided success in spite of the weather.
Albert and Nathan White are in Texas buying mules.
Miss Mollie Via, of Perry, is visiting Miss Maggie Hall.
There were not less than 10,000 people in Mexico last Saturday.
The moonlight picnic at Mr. Ellington's was an enjoyable entertainment.
R. T. Freeman was awarded the premium for the best mule under one year old.
What paper gives you more reading matter (of the kind) than the LEDGER?
The city is full of ministers. We were they "stand" while they pray for rain.
Wm. Alexander, of the Perry Gazette, was a visitor in the city last Saturday.
Forepaugh's show gave good satisfaction. The bicycle performances were noticeably good.
Mr. Chandler, a stenographer and nephew of L. M. Pense, was in Mexico yesterday on a visit.
Forepaugh took about $1,000 out of Mexico, besides paying bills to the amount of about $1,500.
Miss Florence Clayton, of Macon City, was in the city yesterday attending the State meeting.
Case Green, one of the best dry goods men in the West, is now clerking for Reed & Nelson.
Mr. Allen's school for boys opens Sept. 19th, 9 a. m., at his residence on Liberty street.
We sigh for a circus that does not let leopards peddlers to crawl all over you during the performance.
Miss Sallie Ware, of Covington, Ky., who has been visiting relatives in this county, returned home Tuesday.
On Saturday, the 17th inst., Judge Edwards will sell at the court house to the highest bidder a valuable piece of property.
J. J. Wincott's chest of tools were stolen last Saturday night from the French's hospital, where Mr. Wincott had been at work.
We had no theatre last week. The troupe that was here not being of the best refined, did not show as they deserved, fearing trouble.
A water famine seems to be upon the city. Every man in the county should have a deep well, and if he has the room dig a large pond.
It is the opinion of thousands of trying people that prayers have been answered. The Good Book bears them out in the idea.
If you are going to pay for your children with wood, we would like you to bring it in while the roads are good. You can bring a bigger price for it now.
The President was moved to Long Beach last Tuesday to get him out of the malarial district. He stood the trip first rate and is daily improving.
Miss Alice Martin and Miss Annie Greenwood, of Perry, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy of this city returned to their homes yesterday.
Public school opens next Monday. Don't fail to start your children the first day. Every child that is going to school should be in his seat by 9 a. m. next Monday.
Rose Anderson, one of Forepaugh's employees, was struck by a train Saturday night and was badly mangled. There is some doubt of his recovery.
Last Sunday afternoon C. O. Morrell had about 40 acres of grass and hay stacks of hay burned. Loss about $250. If his residence had not been cut off from the fire by plowing, it would also have been burned.
We learn that Dennis Callahan, of the Union Station, has purchased a new store. Casey & Feabody are going to Slater. They are good business men and we hate to lose them. Dennis is a live, good dealing man and will do a big business.

One of the warmest little fires we ever saw took place in this city last Saturday evening. Harry Day's carpenter shop, just north of the square burned to the ground in less than ten minutes. The fire engine and company was promptly on the ground, but there being no water they could do nothing but look on and yell. With buckets they saved Coatsworth's lumber yard and James Gilliam's residence. If the wind had been from the West, instead of the East, Gilliam's, McDearmon's and E. D. Graham's residences would all have been burned. Mr. Day has no idea how his shop caught fire, as no one had been in it since 9 a. m. of that day. The shop belonged to Mrs. E. Graham. Loss, about $150; no insurance. There is no mistake but what the fire company should be supplied with buckets, hooks and ladders. If a fire should break out in Mexico during the water famine, the engine would be useless.

Lightning Flashes.
Last Friday, although we did not have a great deal of rain, we had plenty of lightning. It struck a little tree near the Fair Ground gate and twisted it all to pieces, stunning Riley and McGee, gatekeepers. J. J. Spencer's, stable northeast of Mexico was struck and one horse killed. Richard Fletcher, who lives just north of Mexico, had a rack of oats struck and burned. The residence of J. C. Ellington, east of Mexico, was also struck. Mr. and Mrs. Ellington both being stunned. Damage very light.

A Good Meeting.
To the Editor of the Mexico Ledger.
ROCK HILL CHRISTIAN CHURCH, August 10.—Dear Sir: Please say to your many readers that we have just had a very interesting meeting here conducted by Eld. J. A. Headington, with thirteen additions to the army of the faithful. Bro. Headington is a good apostolic preacher, and does good work. Our meeting lasted ten days, and closed with the church built up and brethren much edified.

James Reapt.
Wm. C. Bartley.

House Breakers.
In spite of our repeated warnings against thieves on circus days, H. Hall left his house unguarded last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hall being at a neighbors and Mr. Hall at his place of business. In the meantime thieves broke into the house and carried off all of Mr. Hall's Sunday clothes, leaving their own well-worn rags. They also took valuable jewelry belonging to Mr. Hall's wife and mother. Mr. Hall wishes to thank them for leaving the house.

Brotherly Love.
The following was sent to Mrs. Garfield from Mexico last Tuesday:
Mexico, Mo., Sept. 5.
Mrs. J. A. Garfield, Dear Madam:
Your brethren in State convention assembled in Mexico, Mo., after listening to the latest telegraph in regard to the President have spent an hour in prayer to God for his recovery, and herewith, by the order of the convention, the sympathy of the brethren in Missouri is extended you and yours.
J. W. MONTGOMERY, Secretary.

The Mexico LEDGER is authority for the statement that J. W. Carson of that place has made $25,000 in clear money within the last month speculating in grain. He was operating in the Chicago and St. Louis markets. Mr. Carson (or "Kit") as he was more familiarly known) will be remembered by many readers of the Banner as a former resident of Warrenton, where he taught school and speculated on a small scale for several years. He is a shrewd man and a slick speculator.—Warrenton Banner.

"Took the Cake."
Mrs. Dave Steele, of this city, took the premium for the best cake at our Fair last week. The judges knew good cake when they saw it, as we can bear testimony. Mrs. Steele has the thanks of the LEDGER force for some of the premium cake, and Dave for cigars.

The band boys are succeeding even better than they expected. They have raised nearly enough money to insure their buying their instruments. Mexico needs a band and the boys should be encouraged.

There is to-day a girl living in Mexico that is by far better looking than Forepaugh's $10,000 beauty. We will leave the matter to a jury of competent judges, one of which we want to be whom.

The prospect is that the Mexico Colored Fair will be a decided success. The officers are doing all in their power to have good stock on the grounds, and a full display for floral hall.

There are no good Indians except dead Indians, was again exemplified last week, when the "noble" red man massacred over 100 soldiers on the western plains.

There was a heavy rain on East Littleby this county last Friday. The lightning came thick and fast, but fortunately no damage was done.

Rev. St. Smith, colored, who came very near being assassinated last week, is not from Glasgow as we stated.

A man must punch over 200 half-dollars to get silver enough to make sixty cents, and yet some one keeps on punching.

A new school house is to be built at Rush Hill, and an artesian well will be bored. Rush Hill is rushing right on.

St. Louis is to have another morning paper. It will be Democratic, after the style of the New York Sun.

Be very careful where you throw the stumps of cigars this dry weather.

Miss Laura Clark is very sick.

FROM LADDONIA.
Correspondence of the Mexico Ledger.
LADDONIA, August 29.—"Annie Laurie" has been writing you articles making everything look as merry as a "marriage bell" in and around Laddonia, and "Red Bat" prides himself on giving you the "truth and the whole truth;" yet there are many little things, too numerous to mention, that neither speak of. Now, for the last few days, Laddonia has been running over with religion. You know it has been very hot and dry, and it took very little to get up considerable steam. As I belong to none of the churches, and am only an "observer," it was rather amusing to watch the generalship displayed between the Universalist and orthodox during their meetings, which closed last night. The Universalist published their meetings far and near, and one good brother worked faithfully on Friday preparing an arbor to accommodate the crowd that was expected. He didn't seem to think of heat, or dust, or that he himself weighed two hundred pounds. No; he feared nothing—he was preparing for the crowd. The few families—and they are only few—friendly to "having all men to be saved," cooked enough provision to have fed a whole regiment. The meeting resulted as follows: On Saturday attendance, during the three sermons, averaged from eight to twenty-five persons, each sermon. On Sunday, from thirty to seventy-five. Elders Tabor and Hill presided. Now, the orthodox, hearing of the Universalist effort to draw a crowd, put all their forces together. I notice there is nothing that can make the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Christians, so truly orthodox as when a Universalist meeting is expected. They forget their "close communion," their "sprinkling," their "predestination," their "immersion," and say, "these little differences are not essential." But let the Universalist keep aloof, and leave them all to themselves, then "immersion" is "immersion," "close communion" is "close communion," and "predestination" is "predestination." As one preacher said in his sermon a few Sundays ago, they must unite their efforts to "fight the devil, his angels, and the Universalist." Well, the result of their meeting was from one hundred to three hundred people present at each sermon. The meeting was conducted by Elder Griffin in the morning, and Dr. Shumate at night. Now, "Annie Laurie" would say in her "child like and bland" way that each of these four preachers preached very talented sermons; but will only say this: the orthodox thought their views were presented in an able manner and were well pleased; the Universalists thought they had the truth preached to them, and were well pleased with their preachers. The Baptists, true to contract, let the Universalists preach in their church "when it is not in use," but it is most "always in use. So they have had to take their meetings to the school house and ring the lesser bell, for the lesser crowd in the lesser house, while the chimes of the church bell rings out on the air and says "come to the orthodox church," and most every one goes. "Such is life!" 'Tis rather funny to observe their skirmishing, and wonder if they'll be this way in Heaven—for they all say they are going there. Now, I've only written of the majority of each denomination here—of course, there are exceptions. I do not aim this for a "news letter," but as the town has been so thoroughly preached to, I thought the people would wish to know the result.

Observer.

LADDONIA LACONICS.
Correspondence of the Ledger.
LADDONIA, Sept. 5.—The dust has been laid by a light rain which fell last Thursday. Some sickness in town and vicinity, but at present no serious cases. Hattie Hicks died last Friday, aged about 14 years old. The Good Templars, of which she was a member, held a special meeting and passed resolutions of respect in regard to her death. Died: Golda Aron, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lippincott, of this place. She was over two years old, and it may be truly said she was the light and joy of the family. She was a beautiful child, interesting all in her sweet, childish prattle, leading all to love her. We would fain offer words of consolation, but we know words are poor comfort at best, and time alone will heal the wound, and lead us at last to say "Thou art sweet to give back the spirit to its Maker, ere the heart has grown familiar with the pangs of sin." Mr. Lippincott and G. H. Simpson took the body to Pike county, Ill., for interment. Willie Jackson got his arm broken last week. School commences next week—teacher, L. Romans.

Another Bold Train Robbery.
There was a raid on the night express train of the C. & A. R. R. last night between Glendale and Independence. The report is that the robbers got $20,000 from the Express Company, in addition to what was obtained from passengers.

Edward and Miss Mamie Rines left Monday night for St. Louis to attend school.

Fancy and business stationery of all kinds at Smothers & Voorhies' drug store.

DIED.
August 22nd, 1881, little Bryant, infant son of John S. and Annie E. Bybee, aged 1 year, 8 months and 24 days.
In this city, Sept. 1, 1881, Henrietta Emma, infant daughter of Jas. W. and Annie M. Daniel, aged 1 year, 11 months and 24 days.
"Sweet little children to come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."
Funeral pangs please copy.
At the residence of F. Davis, three miles north of Mexico, last week, Wm. Callaway, of typographical society. His remains were interred in that county to-day.

A Mean Trick.
Some fellows with no principle, and a desire to deceive the readers of their paper, begin an advertisement with matter that is interesting and not at all relevant to the advertisement. We think this a very mean trick; therefore, without any preliminary remarks, we wish to inform our readers that if they intend to build anything, from a pigeon house to a mansion, they should get their lumber, lath and lime of Barnes & Houston, who have the largest stock, the best stock, and sell at cheaper rates than anyone else. Remember the place, just north of the post-office. Don't fail at least to call and get prices. 18-1w
